GUIDE TO

Midtown Atlanta

ABOUT

Midtown Atlanta

The Emory Proton Therapy Center is located toward the southern end of Midtown Atlanta, just a block and a half from Emory University Hospital Midtown. Our highly walkable neighborhood boasts a vibrant blend of businesses, restaurants and bars, shopping, hotels, apartments and condos, greenspaces, museums, and entertainment. During the day, explore exhibits at the High Museum, stroll through Piedmont Park, enjoy some retail therapy, or tour the Federal Reserve's Monetary Museum. At night, enjoy drinks at a rooftop bar, a special meal at one of Midtown's many award-winning restaurants, or take in a show at the historic Fox Theatre. With so much to see and do, you'll have many opportunities to take advantage of downtime between treatments. For suggestions and recommendations, please reach out to our Patient Experience team by calling 404-251-0510 or emailing Proton-Experience@emoryhealthcare.org.
